Dear Claudia Lopez,

It is not my personal problem. I just alert a mobilehome park scam that affects million mobilehome owners around the U.S. Therefore, please close my case and investigate the scam to protect your people.

Respectfully,

Lich Tran

Dear Mr. Tran:

We are processing your inquiry alleging housing discrimination in violation of federal fair housing law. Although this Office has received material from you, we have questions that we need to ask in order to determine if a complaint should be filed. In order to process your inquiry we need to discuss your case with you. Please provide the following information:

- 1-Names of all members of your household (and ages if anyone under 18).
- 2-Is the basis of your complaint race, color, national origin, disability, gender, familial status or religion? If yes, please provide specific information regarding the basis of your complaint.
- 3-How does the respondent know about the basis of your complaint?
- 4-If the complaint is based on disability, did you request a reasonable accommodation? If yes, what did you request, when and what was the outcome?
- 5-Please provide examples/comparisons of adverse action by the respondents. Please include names, dates and specific information regarding event.
- 6-How is adverse action by the respondent related to the basis of your complaint?
- 7-Did you receive a notice regarding adverse action by the respondent? When and for what reason? Can you fax a copy to our office at (415) 489-6560?
- 8-When was the last time you contacted (or were contacted by) the respondents?
- 9-What happened that day?
Anything else you'd like to add?

If we do not discuss your case with you within the specified time frame your Inquiry will be administratively closed. Please note that under the Fair Housing Act you have a statute of limitations of one year from the last date of discrimination if you file with this office, and two years if you file your own action in a state or federal court. Under other laws the limitations period is 180 days. We will be glad to work with you to determine if there is a complaint to be filed in this office if you contact us within the applicable limitations period, even if this matter has previously been administratively closed for failure to respond to this letter.

However, you must file any complaint with this office within the applicable limitations period. It is therefore extremely important that you contact us promptly if the end of the applicable limitations period is imminent. Please contact Claudia Lopez in the Intake Branch at Claudia.Lopez@hud.gov or at (415) 489-6540 or at (800) 347-3739 and dial the last four digits of their phone number followed by the pound sign and discuss your case within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.
